About Akshita Designing Studio

Akshita Designing Studio, founded in 2016, is an industry leader in manufacturing and supplying a wide selection of Sagwan Wooden Door, White Sandstone Jali, Stone Name Plate, WPC Jali, and many more.

We have been able to make these products with a variety of characteristics and technical standards thanks to the use of high-quality raw materials and globally recognized technologies. These products are widely used in a variety of structures and industries because of their dependability, trouble-free operation, excellent performance, user-friendliness, and longer service life.

Our Values:

Our astounding success can be attributed to our adherence to our basic ideals. We are committed to achieving excellence and will never, under any circumstances, compromise our corporate ethics.

Our Infrastructure:

Our cutting-edge infrastructure is the backbone of our firm, allowing us to stay ahead of our competitors in the sector. This facility contains a procurement unit, a manufacturing unit, a testing unit, a research and development unit, a warehousing and packaging unit, and after-sales service. The production facility is outfitted with cutting-edge machinery and sophisticated technologies, allowing us to meet the diverse needs of our customers.

Our Quality Assurance:

As a quality-oriented firm, we take an unwavering stance in maintaining optimal quality at all levels of production. We place a strong emphasis on maintaining international quality standards when manufacturing prefabricated constructions, designing, and polishing.
