About Jona Worldwide

Started in 2016, Jona Worldwide primarily aims in spreading and promoting green environment in India and abroad, and is working towards spreading consciousness about a healthy and pollution free environment to the coming generations, and help the farmers and gardening enthusiasts in India by educating them about use of organic manures and pesticides in cultivation of all types of trees and plants. Backed by very reputed and technical expertise of able producers of different spices, herbs and flowers Jona Worldwide aims to offer and educate the masses about the medicinal and health value of Indian spices and herbs along with commercial farming of medicinal plants, flowers and spices. Our captive farm lands in 12 different States including Uttar Pradesh, Punjab and Andhra Pradesh helps us to offer commercially cultivated spices, herbs and dry flowers to our customers worldwide. Our association with some very refined technically sound and well established brand of organic manure manufacturers helps us to spread the buzz word about the importance of organic manure and organic farming to minimize the hazardous use of chemical fertilizers in farming. We are very confident that our aim and consistent efforts will help us to achieve our mark in this country and abroad.
