About Kumar Enterprises

Since the year 1998, we at Kumar Enterprises are offering the most appetising and genuine products around the globe. Associated with foremost names in the market, our product portfolio includes a qualitative range of Milk Powder, Jersey Cow Ghee, Verka Cow Ghee, Verka Lassi, Plum Jam etc.

As a leading exporters and suppliers, our entire range is made from authentic raw material and hygienically processed using proven methods. To avail this, we work in close proximity with some well renowned entities who have sufficient technical expertise, infrastructure backup and enhanced supply system, making us reach the customers with exceptional purity, taste and health benefits.

Being a quality-focused company, our professionals strictly follow all the regulations & standards at each stage of procurement and supply. Our quality controllers supervise all the activities and further ensure that all the products are at par with the standards set by the industry. Our team of professionals further make use of the advanced quality control mechanisms and procedures to ensure that it retains all its unique properties and food value.

Operating from Dehradun (Uttarakhand, India), we are also backed by an equally advanced infrastructure facility that helps us to meet our consignments in the most proficient manner. Our facility allows us to store the products in bulk quantity to readily deliver them in the stipulated time frame.

Our consistent growth in the industry is a culmination of hard work and endless efforts of our Founder Mr. Himanshu Arora, who is blessed with exceptional knowledge of this domain and ensure that we serve our customers with utmost dedication. Under his guidance, we promise to promptly deliver all the products while keeping complete transparency throughout the process.
