About Primemac International

We at Primemac International are emerging as reputed manufacturers, exporters, and suppliers of premium-grade agro-products in the international market. Leveraging on our innovative technology, we are providing a range of quality products like Fresh Onion, Fresh Ginger, Fresh Lemon, Groundnut Seeds, Shelled Groundnuts, Cumin seeds, etc.

Our entire range is produced under the strict supervision of experienced farmers, a skilled workforce, and food experts who are well aware of industry norms and related standards. To imbibe the best flavor, appearance, taste, nutrition, and appeal in our products, we implement the most sophisticated methods without any harmful chemicals.

This makes our products free from impurities and artificial colour while staying in line with the expectations of our clients. Based in Rajkot (Gujarat, India), we are backed by an ultra-modern infrastructure facility that helps us keep the products in bulk without affecting their shelf life or quality. With this, we offer our products in a well-protected packaging material for added safety during transit.

Our company was founded and is currently operated by Mr. Nilesh Meghani, who himself is endowed with great expertise in this domain. Due to his potential to counter any setback, customer-oriented approach, and commitment towards the domestic communities, we are gaining profound respect from all sides. Under his guidance, we promise that our customers will get only the best products, prices, customer service, delivery experience, and dealings from our end.
